

CAMILLE CALHOUN STEINER

3722 Brook Highland Drive
Tuscaloosa, Alabama 35406
(205) 349-2897

JOB OBJECTIVE

Teach basic or advanced mathematics at the college level

EDUCATION

Master of Science - Mathematics, University of Mississippi,
University, Mississippi
May 1991

Bachelor of Science - Cum Laude, Mathematics, University of Mississippi, University, Mississippi
May 1989

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Math Technology Learning Center Coordinator, University of Alabama,
Department of Mathematics
Tuscaloosa, Alabama, fall 2014- present

Duties: Manage the math lab on a daily basis. Supervise student tutors, student monitors, graduate teaching assistants, and full or part time instructors. In charge of scheduling students for testing as well as scheduling the staff for the regular weeks and testing weeks.

Full-time Temporary Instructor, University of Alabama, Department of Mathematics
Tuscaloosa, Alabama, 1991-present

Classes taught: Beginning Algebra, Intermediate Algebra, Finite Math, Math Reasoning, Pre- Calculus, Trigonometry, Pre-Calculus-Trigonometry, Business Calculus, Calculus I and Math for Elementary Teachers.

Duties: Course leader, select textbooks, write syllabi, write departmental quizzes and departmental tests, conduct weekly course meetings, and mentor part-time instructors and graduate teaching assistants.

Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Mississippi, Department of Mathematics
University, Mississippi
Academic Years 1990-1991, 1989-1990

Classes taught: College Algebra and Trigonometry.

Duties: Write quizzes and exams, attend weekly teaching seminar.

Undergraduate Teaching Assistant, University of Mississippi, Department of Mathematics, University, Mississippi
Spring Semester 1989

Math Tutor, University of Mississippi, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics,
University, Mississippi
Academic Year 1990-1991, 1988-1989

PROFESSIONAL

Delta Kappa Gamma